IN MEMORIAM The Late Mrs. Curry Died 6 May 1912

In connection with the death of the late Mrs. Curry, of Curry's Post. it may be recorded that the deceased lady was unfortunate enough to break her leg last December, and suffered considerably from that time until her death, nearly five months later. The funeral was at Curry's Post and attended by a large number of friends and relations from various parts of the Province.

Mrs. Curry born in the Cape Colony in 1828, was married at Fort Beaufort in 1845. She and her husband came to Natal in the early fifties, and settled at Curry's Post, where they lived until her death, after a married life of sixty-seven years.

General sympathy is felt for the numerous relatives, especially Mr. Curry, who has lost a good wife, appreciated as a valued friend by many old colonists, to whom the example of a long life of kindly thought for others will ever be remembered, and it is certain that to these, the old place at Curry's Post will never be the same deprived as it is of a genial presence.

The late Mrs. Curry was the grandmother of Mr. Walter H. Acutt.

According to Francis Harriet Rudd's bible entries, Sarah Ann was born on 4th September 1828.
